About Us

Who We Are: The CFPD was established by a volunteer Board of Directors in 1994 to develop a supplemental needs Trust. The purpose of the Trust is to protect a person's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Medicaid from being impacted should they receive funds that would make them ineligible for these or other public benefits.

Our Mission: CFPD seeks to enhance the independence and quality of life for people who are elderly or disabled and their families. CFPD actively evaluates, monitors, oversees, coordinates, and implements services in partnership with its clients and their families to ensure and maintain their rights, integrity and dignity.

General Trust Information

As you may know, there are many different types of SNTs, and therefore, certain differences in administering each type of trust. However, as trustee, there are some key rules that we must follow in administering your trust. The information contained in the handbook will serve as a helpful guide to understanding the basics of your SNT.

In determining whether a trust request can be approved, CFPD must consider the following:

Pre-Approval: The Trust request must be pre-approved prior to any purchase made. Pre-approval is an important piece of an SNT, as it demonstrates to both the Social Security Administration and Medicaid, that the funds in the trust are controlled by the Trustee, CFPD, and not the Trust beneficiary. If the beneficiary is able to compel or direct distributions from the Trust, the Trust would be considered a countable resource for purposes of SSI and Medicaid eligibility.

Sole Benefit: Distributions from the trust may be made only for the benefit of the individual beneficiary, and not to benefit any third party. For example, gifts to family members or friends are not permissible expenses as they are not for the sole benefit of the Trust beneficiary.

Cannot supplant or replace public benefits: Services or items for which the beneficiary is entitled to receive payment through another program cannot be otherwise paid from the Trust. For example, a medical bill that should be paid by Colorado Medicaid cannot be paid out of the Trust.

Understanding Expenditures

Understanding which expenditures may be permitted from a Beneficiary's Trust can be complicated. All disbursements from a Trust are subject to the discretion of the Trustee and must be pre-approved. A Trustee takes into consideration many aspects affecting the Beneficiary, such as how much is in the Trust, age, special circumstances of the Beneficiary, SSI, and Medicaid regulations. Request for Trust expenditures may only be requested as payment to third party vendors. All expenditures must be verified by an invoice or receipts.

Disclaimer: These are general rules. Distributions are based on each person's unique benefits. Each request will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Further, Trust requests for minors will be evaluated alongside Parental Duty of Support rules.

Examples of Expenses a Trust CAN Pay: Some items list below may not be appropriate for some beneficiaries. Different disbursement rules may apply to minor beneficiaries due to parental duty and obligations of support.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

What is the difference between a First Party and Third Party Trust?

A first party trust refers to a trust established with money that belongs to the beneficiary; it's your money in trust for your own benefit. Common reasons people fund first party trusts include:

- Receipt of back pay from Social Security.
- Accumulation of income, from benefits, wages, or other sources.
- Settlements from Personal Injury or Malpractice suits.
- Inheritance that names a person directly as the beneficiary.
- Sale of home.

A third party trust refers to one established with money that does not belong to the beneficiary. It's often established and funded by parents, grandparents or other family members. This can also be an option for funds generated by accounts like GoFundMe (please consult us before establishing or accepting funds from this type of account).

Common reasons people fund third party trusts include:

- Someone wants to leave funds to a person on disability benefits at their death and directs that inheritance to trust rather than naming the beneficiary directly.
- Someone wants to gift funds to a person on disability benefits in the present.
- In both cases, the intention is to protect benefits.

Where does my trust money go if I pass away?

1st Party Trusts

First Party trusts hold your own money for your own benefit. If you're a member of the first party pooled trust, your funds will be directed to CFPD's Charitable Fund according to the trust document.

If your trust is an individual trust and you have received Medicaid benefits, Medicaid has the first claim on any remainder funds. They will pursue a claim to collect on any Medicaid benefit money that was spent on you during your lifetime (not just the time during which you had a trust).

If your trust funds exceed the amount of Medicaid support you received in your life, the funds left over may be passed along to a designated beneficiary.

3rd Party Trusts

In a third party trust, one that holds money given to you by another person, it is up to the person funding the account (the Grantor) to decide where any funds would go if the primary beneficiary were to pass away with money remaining in trust. This is designated in writing to any person/entity the grantor chooses.

What kind of things can my trust pay for?

Who do I contact for a pre-paid burial plan?

In the initial application to join CFPD's trusts, we ask whether you, as the beneficiary, already have a burial/cremation policy and if not, whether you'd be interested in talking about one. This is important to address early on, as in a First Party trust, CFPD's ability to spend the money in trust passes with you. If you haven't purchased a plan while alive, it cannot be done from trust after you pass. In a Third Party trust, we MAY be able to use your remainder funds to purchase a burial or cremation plan. It is always a good idea to have a pre-need plan in place.

To be considered an exempt resource for Colorado Medicaid, the pre-need agreement must include an irrevocable assignment (typically a clause in the contract or an addendum) to be eligible for payment through the trust. For more details, please discuss this requirement with your CFPD Case Manager/Trust Administrator. Your Case Manager/Trust Administrator can also provide referrals/recommendations to providers of funeral, burial, and cremation services.

Can I pay for food or housing with my trust?

Typically, no, but this is not always a simple question to answer and is dependent upon the public benefits that you individually receive.

SSI

If you are a recipient of Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and trust money is used to pay your rent (or anyone else's money is used to pay your rent), you are subject to a one-third (1/3) reduction in your SSI income benefit for the month in which that rent was paid.

Regular 2024 SSI benefit:	$943
Less 1/3 reduction:	- 334 (1/3 of $943 less $20 disregard)
Total SSI Income for that Month	$609

In some cases, it makes good sense to accept that reduction in income. In most cases, it does not.

SSDI

If you are a recipient of Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), using either your own adult benefit or that of one of your parents, there may be some possibility to pay rent using trust funds. In that case, we would look for other benefits that might be affected if we do pay rent from trust.

Home and Community Based Services Medicaid

If you receive Long-Term Care Medicaid (LTC) or Home and Community Based Services (HCBS), and trust money is used to pay your rent (or anyone else's money is used to pay your rent), those payments are considered income to you.

In 2023, one may not have more than $2,742/month in income from all sources and still stay qualified for LTC/HCBS Medicaid. Here's an example:

Your sample SSDI benefit:	$1,483/month
Maximum income for LTC/Medicaid eligibility:	$2,742 /month
The difference:	$1,259 – The trust (or another source) may contribute to rent or other primary needs up to this amount while keeping your HCBS Medicaid financial eligibility protected.

One way we potentially can pay rent is by making distributions to an ABLÉ Act (Achieving a Better Life Experience Act of 2014) savings account. These accounts are designed for people whose disability was diagnosed prior to age 26, and it is appropriate to pay rent from them.

CFPD does not administer ABLÉ accounts but does provide some services for clients who need support in opening or managing this type of account. Learn more about ABLÉ accounts here: <https://www.coloradoable.org>, and talk to your Case Manager if you're interested in opening one.

How are my funds invested?

In CFPD's Pooled Trust (both first party trusts and third-party trusts), investment advice is provided by our banking partner, True Link Financial, Inc. Decisions about investments are then made by CFPD's Board Finance Committee. Investments are handled very conservatively to minimize the risk of loss.

When CFPD is serving as co-trustee on an individual trust, the corporate banking partner/ co-trustee serves as the investment manager.

When CFPD is serving as sole trustee on an individual trust, investment decisions are made by CFPD's Board Investment Committee and are invested via CFPD's selected investment advisor.

Is my trust confidential? Who is authorized to receive information about my trust?

Yes. Information about trusts is always confidential and is shared only with permission.

As the beneficiary of the trust, you will let us know who it's OK to share information with (including accountings, requests for distributions, etc.). Your Case Manager will provide you with a Release of Information during the initial Assessment and Plan meeting in the event that you would like to designate someone to make requests of and/or gather information about your trust account. You can also tell us in your initial application and may revise that at any time. Keep in mind that we are obliged by law to share information with a legal guardian or conservator for a beneficiary.

Why does CFPD require receipts/bills/documentation for expenses?

In order to consider and pre-approve a distribution from Trust, CFPD requires proof via receipts, invoices, bills, etc. to document the expense. This is necessary for CFPD to comply with our fiduciary duty and perform all due diligence (sole benefit, distribution is compliant with trust and public benefit rules, etc.) in administering each trust. Medicaid and Social Security may also, at any time, request such documentation for those same reasons and CFPD, as trustee, must comply with such requests in order for the trust to be considered an exempt resource for public benefit eligibility. Additionally, CFPD participates in both monthly and annual audits to ensure our compliance with fiduciary standards in administering supplemental needs trusts and proper documentation for each transaction is an inherently necessary component of such audit and standards.

What's the best way for CFPD to receive my bills?

There is no single way to do this. CFPD works uniquely with each beneficiary to get bills paid on a one-time or ongoing basis.

One way to do this is to have your bills mailed or emailed directly to your Case Manager. Those could be addressed something like this:

(Your Full Name)
1355 S. Colorado Blvd., Ste. 920
Denver, CO 80222

Who can make requests from the trust on my behalf?

As the beneficiary, you, yourself, can of course make requests. If you have a legal guardian and/or conservator, we will consult with that person before approving the request.

Otherwise, you may designate (in writing) someone like a Power of Attorney or other representative who you approve to make requests for you. You may also revoke that privilege in writing later.

No one can make requests from your trust without your or your guardian's permission.

All final decisions as to whether trust funds will be disbursed for a purchase will be made by the Trustee(s).

How can I use my trust funds for someone other than myself?

In short, you cannot use your trust funds to make purchases for anyone other than yourself. They are for your sole benefit.

If you wish to make purchases for someone else, consult with your Case Manager to see if there are bills you might usually pay with your Social Security or wage income that can instead be paid by trust. While we can't make purchases for someone else, we can help you make the best of the funds you do have control over.

Is there any way to cancel my trust or get my money back?

No. Once your funds are placed into trust, they cannot be returned to you, given away (donated) or transferred to another type of account. The trusts are irrevocable (not able to be changed, reversed, or recovered; final).

Who do I call if I have a question that needs answered or have a problem with the trust?

For general questions about your trust, what has been or will be purchased for you, balance amounts, etc., please contact your Case Manager.

If you have a concern that was not resolved by your Case Manager, CFPD has a written Grievance Policy. Refer to the Appendix to read the policy.

How do you make payments from my trust/disburse funds?

There are many ways this happens. Often the most important thing to remember is not how we pay, but WHO we pay. Whenever possible, we will make our payments directly to the vendor of a product or service. Some examples are below:

- We'll ask you to help us get bills for things you want the trust to pay for sent directly to us, things like your cable bill, cell phone bill, insurance payments, etc. We will then pay the amount on the bill directly to the provider, i.e., Comcast, Verizon, State Farm, etc.
- We'll do the same for purchases you make each month, things like a bus pass or medical supplies. We'll purchase them online or pay an invoice with a business check and have the items sent to the beneficiary's residence.

How do I add to my trust?

If you are a trust beneficiary of a first party trust and are under age 65, let us know to expect it and just send us a check. You'll want to make it payable to CFPD FBO Beneficiary's Full Name so we're sure to route your deposit to the right account (FBO means For the Benefit Of). There are no deposit fees.

If you are a beneficiary over age 65, and you have a first party trust, it may or may not be possible to make ongoing contributions to your trust. This is a discussion to have with your case manager.

Ongoing contributions by a third party to a third party trust are acceptable, even after a person has turned age 65.

Am I going to get a tax statement?

The tax reporting you receive depends on the type of trust you have.

- In an Individual Trust where CFPD is the sole trustee, CFPD will send a tax statement to the beneficiary or their guardian or conservator.
- In an Individual Trust where CFPD is a Co-Trustee, the Co-Trustee will send the tax statements to the beneficiary or their guardian or conservator.
- In a First Party Pooled Trust, a Grantor Tax Letter will be sent to the beneficiary or their guardian or conservator by CFPD via JDS Professional Group.
- In a Third Party Pooled Trust, CFPD will send a K-1 form to the beneficiary or their guardian or conservator.

Whether or not an individual then needs to file income taxes varies depending on the total income sources a person has. To determine whether you need to file, and how to file, you will need to consult with a professional who regularly works with trust tax issues.

Once paperwork is submitted, and the trust has been funded how long before the first payment from my trust can be made?

Once paperwork is complete and your account is funded, your case manager will contact you to set up an Assessment and Plan meeting. The purpose of the meeting is to get to know you and the important people in your life, answer any questions that you have about the trust, review the trust rules and procedures, and explore how you might like to use your trust now or in the future.

Following communication with your Case Manager to determine your needs, wishes and goals, we will do our best to make distributions in a timely fashion, but there are many variables. We must fully document each expense and run it through an approval process. Ask your Case Manager about an estimate for your particular request.

Trust Distribution Policies

Attorney Fees Related to Trust

Beneficiaries of CFPD are encouraged to pay all attorney fees and other debt prior to joining the trust. However, there are times when the attorney fees cannot be paid before the trust is set up and must be sent to CFPD for consideration.

- Beneficiaries are encouraged to give notice of any attorney fees or costs prior to their joinder to CFPD.
- When CFPD is not notified, any attorney fees will need to be approved by the Pooled Trust Committee of the CFPD Board.
- Attorney fees will be reviewed by the committee with careful consideration to the amount, scope of work, etc.
- As with any request, the request for attorney fees may be denied by the CFPD Board.

(Approved: 3/17/10)

Appeal of Trustee Decision Policy

In accordance with CFPD's Corporate Resolution, in the event that CFPD-in its role as trustee-makes a decision on a trust request and the Trust beneficiary or their legal representative disagrees with the decision, the beneficiary or their legal representative may appeal.

To appeal, a written request for reconsideration and any additional, new information shall be submitted to CFPD.

The request for reconsideration will be taken to the associated Trust Committee for its reconsideration. The decision of the associated Trust Committee at that point is final.

(Approved: 1/30/19)

Background Check Policy

Background checks will be required for the following:

- All employees.
- All independent contract Care Managers and Companions.
- All persons given Limited Power of Attorney by CFPD for travel.
- Any other person who handles money or gift cards for the benefit of a Beneficiary in excess of $300.00 in a 30 day period.

When the background check is received by CFPD/PLAN/CO it will be reviewed by the Director of Beneficiary Services and the Executive Director. If any concerns are noted, the background check will be forwarded to the Executive Committee for their review.

CFPD/PLAN/CO will pay for the background checks for employees and contract Care Managers. The Beneficiary will pay for all other background checks.

(Approved: 05/17/06)

Bills Incurred Prior to Trust Inception for Pooled Trust Beneficiaries Policy

The CFPD Board of Directors has delegated authority to the Executive Director and his/her designee, as identified in the CFPD Corporate Resolution, to approve requests for a service or good incurred prior to trust joinder if all following circumstances are met:

- The request is made by the beneficiary or their legal representative, and not by the vendor.
- The request is for permitted and allowable expenditures (per the trust document, public benefits, etc.), in the sole and absolute discretion of CFPD as trustee.
- Proper and complete documentation for the request is provided.

All requests outside of these circumstances may be submitted to the applicable Trust Committee for their review and approval consideration.

(Amended 7/26/2023)

Client Grievance Policy

The purpose of this policy is to resolve any issues, dissatisfaction, complaints, etc. expressed by CFPD clients regarding the experience, treatment, staff (inclusive of CFPD contracted Case Managers) and outcomes of CFPD services.

Individuals filing grievances are treated with dignity, understanding, and respect. In no case will a grievance result in any reprisal. Grievances will be given prompt and careful attention and will follow the below steps:

- 1) If an issue arises, the client or their legal representative should report it to the client's Case Manager/Coordinator to determine if the matter can be resolved at this level. If the matter remains unresolved,
- 2) The Case Manager/Coordinator shall inform the individual of the Grievance Policy and inform the Program Director of the grievance.
- 3) The Program Director shall interview both the client and the associated staff member to come to a solution. The solution may involve a transition to working with a new CFPD Case Manager. If the matter remains unresolved,
- 4) The client may request escalation of the matter to the Executive Director for his/her review. A decision will be made at this level.

If the matter involves the Executive Director or the client remains unsatisfied with the Executive Director's decision, the following will occur:

- 5) The client may submit a grievance in writing. The written grievance shall include: a description of the complaint, relevant dates and expected outcome.*
- 6) The grievance will be presented to the Chairperson of the associated Committee (in absence of an appropriate committee, the matter will be presented to CFPD's Board of Directors).
- 7) The findings and determination of the Committee (or Board) are final.

*If the client is unable to provide a written grievance, they will be given the opportunity to make a verbal report to CFPD staff.

(Approved: 01/30/19)

Contract Work Policy

When a beneficiary or their legal representative of CFPD requests construction or contract work for a beneficiary-owned home, the following must be provided anytime the work to be completed is estimated to cost over $10,000 and/or when a permit for the work is required.

CFPD contracts with a professional property management company to provide home consulting services (inclusive of home assessment, repairs, and maintenance) for all homes held in trust (and some homes held in Conservatorship or by the beneficiary, etc.). For these properties and for any other properties in which a professional property management company is contracted to provide this service the process for contract work will follow the professional property management company/CFPD service contract and therefore is not subject to the process outlined below.

Proof Required for Supplemental Needs Request (SNR) to be considered:

- Two estimates or bids from different contractors for the work to be performed.
- License for contractor and any sub-contractor.
- Insurance for contractor and any sub-contractor.
- Contractor is responsible for obtaining permits when necessary.
- Review of BBB or Angie's List for any substantive reviews.
- Lien waivers upon completion of project.

Payment for Contract Work:

Once the SNR has been approved, payment arrangements will be made with the contractor with the following restrictions:

- Prior to any payment, CFPD must receive a contract signed by the beneficiary or the beneficiary's legal representative clearly stating scope of work to be completed, projected timeline, and cost for service and materials.
- "Approval for contract work" letter will be sent to contractor.
- No more than 50% of the total cost of the invoice will be paid as a down payment.
- Prior to final payment, signed lien waivers must be received by CFPD.

*Acknowledging that there are certain instances in which emergency repairs or contract work must be completed urgently, consideration of those individual circumstances will be evaluated. Additionally, for beneficiaries residing in rural areas, contractor options may be limited. Therefore, CFPD may use discretion to waive any or all of the above requirements in these instances.

Examples of the Statement of Satisfaction, Completion of Contract Work and Contractor Financial Agreement are found in the Appendix.

(Approved: 9/27/2023)

Credit Card Debt Policy

When insufficient documentation is provided for credit card payment request, the request is considered debt payment and, if approved, is only allowable once per the lifetime of a trust account/sub-account. Debt may be incurred prior to trust funding or during the lifetime of the trust. Requests for credit card payments, must meet all of the following criteria:

- The beneficiary or legal representative must provide proof of negotiation efforts. Such proof can be a written attestation of efforts made to negotiate the debt and the ultimate outcome of efforts. The beneficiary will be encouraged to seek counsel from a CPA re. any income implications from a negotiated debt amount.
- The request is made by the beneficiary or their legal representative, and not by the vendor.
- The request is for permitted and allowable expenditures (per the trust document, public benefits, etc.), in the sole and absolute discretion of CFPD as trustee.

All requests outside of these circumstances may be submitted to the applicable Trust Committee for their review and approval consideration.

(Approved: 7/26/2023)

Distributions from Trust to ABLE Account Policy

In accordance with SI 01130.740: Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) Accounts and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services letter dated September 7, 2017, CFPD will consider distributions from a supplemental needs trust to ABLE accounts for circumstances meeting the following criteria:

- The purpose of the distribution is for payment of an SSI beneficiary's housing or food expenses. Food expenses are now considered a Qualified Disability Expense under “Basic Living Expenses” per the update to the POMS effective March 13, 2020. Such distribution to an ABLE account to pay these expenses will not count as In-Kind Support and Maintenance (ISM), whereas paying such expenses directly from Trust would count as ISM against the beneficiary.

- The purpose of the distribution is for payment of ongoing and regular monthly expenses and the individual receives a housing assistance benefit which may count such distributions from trust against the individual’s income eligibility. CFPD understands that in the current practice of the HUD administration, some housing authorities may count regular distributions from Trust (for items such as phone service, cable, etc.) as income in determining eligibility for housing assistance. Therefore, it may be in the best interest of the trust beneficiary, if eligible, to establish an ABLE account to pay those expenses, per the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Notice H-2019-06. In this circumstance, the individual’s trust may fund the ABLE account.
- Initial distribution to the ABLE account from trust will cover the total of two months of housing and/or food expenses, ongoing and regular monthly expenses for individuals receiving housing assistance and ABLE account administrative fees.
- Subsequent funding will be limited to monthly contributions totaling one month’s housing and/or food expenses, ongoing and regular monthly expenses for individuals receiving housing assistance and administrative expenses only up to the annual contribution limit.
- A signed certification and agreement by the beneficiary via the “Beneficiary Agreement: Distribution from supplemental needs trust to ABLE account” document stating:
 - That the beneficiary meets the criteria for an ABLE account; and
 - That the distribution will only be used for food expenses housing expenses, ongoing and regular monthly expenses for individuals receiving housing assistance and account administrative fees; and
 - That the beneficiary will provide an annual accounting of the ABLE account upon CFPD’s request; and
 - The responsibilities of the ABLE account owner; and
 - Acknowledgement of remainder funds in ABLE account.
- Prior to any distributions to the ABLE account, CFPD staff will evaluate appropriateness of CFPD to serve as POA for the ABLE Account or if another legal representative will fulfill that role.

CFPD has the discretion to end distributions from trust to the ABLE account at any time.

Distributions from trust to an ABLE account for other purposes or amounts will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the CFPD Executive Director.

End of Life Options Medication Request Policy

The Colorado End of Life Options Law (Article 48 of Title 25, C.R.S.) went into effect on December 16, 2016. Currently, neither Medicare nor Medicaid has approved payment for End-of-Life Options medication.

In acknowledgement of the fact that CFPD serves individuals that may want to access End of Life Options with the assistance of the funds held in trust, conservatorship, or in a representative payee account in which CFPD serves as fiduciary, CFPD will consider such request in accordance with C.R.S. Article 48 of Title 25, and the following:

- Individual must be 18 years of age or older.
- Individual is not under guardianship and has not been adjudicated incapacitated.
- Request for payment of the aid in dying medication from the funds held at CFPD must be directly from the individual independently and not from any outside party.
- CFPD has received the following:
 - A signed and completed (2 witness signatures are required) written request for medical aid in dying medication to end life, attached.
 - A signed Physician's letter detailing diagnosis of terminal disease, prognosis of six months or less, mental capacity determination and that all requirements pursuant to law have been satisfied, including steps taken to carry out the request.
 - Copy of prescription, including a notation of the medications prescribed and when.
 - Signed End of Life Medication: Final Expenses Disclosure regarding purchase of end of life plan.
 - Beneficiary signed HIPPA release authorizing CFPD to speak with treating physician.

If approved, CFPD staff will make payment directly to the pharmacy. CFPD staff members may individually choose whether to participate in the request process for End of Life Options. If a staff member decides not to participate, an alternative staff contact will be assigned for the End of Life Options request process.

Firearms, Crossbows & Ammunition Policy

At their regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting on May 18, 2005, the Board for the Colorado Fund for People with Disabilities, Inc., voted to adopt a policy of denying any supplemental needs request for firearms, crossbows, or ammunition.

Gratuity Policy

When a CFPD beneficiary's trust (pooled or individual) is being used to pay for a service and it is customary to provide gratuity (examples: Salon, Restaurant, etc.), the trust will only pay up to 20% gratuity. Anything beyond 20% will be a cost borne by the individual.

(Approved: 08/16/16)

Home Purchase and Requirement of a Will

(Approved: 7/27/16)

Individuals Age 65 and Older Joining the Pooled Trust

The Disclaimer for Individuals Age 65 and Older Joining The Pooled Trust can be found in the Appendix.

Based on the Colorado Medicaid Regulations, there is no penalty for establishing a pooled trust for an individual age 65 and older. However, the CO Department of Health Care Policy and Financing (the Department) can assess a penalty based on the amount transferred into the pooled trust because they may consider it to be a transfer without fair consideration (a fancy way of saying “gift”).

Due to a recent decision in the State District Court regarding this matter and CFPD’s analysis of the actions of the Department, CFPD is continuing to accept individuals over the age of 65 into the Pooled Trust as long as our Assessment and Plan, which is conducted before the individual joins the trust, is able to determine that we can reasonably spend the funds for the individual in the course of their lifetime (based on life expectancy tables).

There is still some risk associated with the transfers made into the pooled trust. We encourage you to discuss these further with CFPD staff and with an attorney who is representing you. Each Assessment and Plan is very individualized, and our recommendation will consider life expectancy, amount of funds to be deposited into the trust and other individual factors.

In the event that the Department does consider your transfer into the pooled trust as a “Transfer without fair consideration,” there will be a penalty. The penalty period is based on the amount placed into the pooled trust. Consider the example of an individual who establishes the pooled trust for $25,000. The $25,000 is divided by the average cost of nursing home care in the state of Colorado at the time of the transfer. In 2020, the average cost of nursing home care in Colorado is $7,892. $25,000 divided by $7,892 is equal to 3.2. This equates to 3.2 months of ineligibility for the individual.

Does it matter if the person lives in another setting?

No, the calculation always uses the highest cost of care, even if the person lives in a less expensive facility (Assisted Living) or in the community.

Are Medicare or Social Security benefits affected?

No. Medicare and Social Security benefits will not be affected.

Can my cost of care be paid for by my trust during my period of ineligibility?

Yes. The trust can be used to pay for this cost of care during the period of ineligibility. (Each beneficiary’s cost of care should be evaluated based on their income per month and their cost of care for services, as this calculation is unique to each person.) That said, CFPD would encourage you, through an attorney, to appeal the decision made by Medicaid.

Summary:

CFPD highly encourages each potential beneficiary age 65 or older of the pooled trust to meet with an attorney to discuss the option of joining a pooled trust and the consequences. CFPD maintains a list of attorneys who practice in this area of the law and understand all of the implications of joining a pooled trust over the age of 65. Further, the attorneys on CFPD's Professional Network have agreed to a reduced rate for their services.

Payment of Caregiving Services and Legal Roles/Services

This policy supersedes all other policies related to caregiving and legal roles/services and will be effective May 1, 2017.

Per Medicaid and Trust requirements, CFPD Trust beneficiaries must first utilize all available services through their Medicaid services. The CFPD Case Manager may need to help them access additional services or to apply for services. When supplemental caregiving or professional services are approved, the following requirements apply:

- Caregiving, companionship, and activities of daily living services (to include grocery shopping, meal prep, personal assistant, etc.) services that are ongoing and routine (typically lasting longer than 90 days) will be paid for by the trust as follows:
 - To an Agency (such as a home health agency) for caregiving services. The Agency must be licensed and insured and provide care compensation comparable to current market rates.
 - The beneficiary may choose their own caregivers, who will then be employed through TEAM Risk Management. (See the TEAM Application packet). The rate of pay will be set by CFPD after a review of current pay for like positions/responsibilities and input from TEAM.

- The only services paid for by trust will be services that are not being paid for by Medicaid. CFPD may request timesheets, job descriptions and other supporting documentation in re: services being paid for by Medicaid.
- Caregiving, companionship, and activities of daily living services (meal prep, personal assistant, etc.) services that are short-term (less than 90 days) may be approved on a case-by-case scenario per the Corporate Resolution. The rate of pay will be set by CFPD after a review of current pay for like positions/responsibilities.
- Guardian and Conservator bills will be reviewed by CFPD on an ongoing basis. The Guardian and/or Conservator is responsible for obtaining court approval for their fees and costs. CFPD may require this documentation.
- Attorney Fees related to Guardian/Conservator matter may also require the Attorney to seek court approval for these fees and costs. CFPD may require this documentation.
- Non-professional individuals serving as Agents under Power of Attorney (POA) may be compensated at the rate of up to $50/hour if authorized in the POA Instrument. CFPD must be in receipt of the POA Instrument.

If this policy is not followed, CFPD reserves the right to decline payment for such services. The balance of the trust and rate of spending for all of these services will be discussed with the Beneficiary and/or their Guardian and/or Conservator on a regular basis and no less than bi-annually at the Trust Review.

(Amended: 03/23/2022)

CFPD will maintain adequate liability insurance for all properties held in trust.

CFPD will charge for all time related to the management of the property at the hourly case management rate set forth in the annual fee schedule.

Rental Vehicles Payment Policy

In CFPD's various fiduciary roles (including, but not limited to: Trustee, Representative Payee and Conservator), the organization frequently receives requests for the payment of rental vehicles with an individual's funds. Once such expense is pre-approved, CFPD must consider payment for this expense very carefully. In an effort to protect CFPD's exposure to liability, payment for vehicles is restricted to the following:

- Reimbursement to the beneficiary's representative or to the beneficiary/client (if allowable per public benefits) after payment has been made and appropriate documentation submitted.
- Funds sent to the beneficiary's representative via a Durable Power of Attorney or to the beneficiary/client (if allowable per public benefits) prior to payment. Appropriate documentation shall be submitted to CFPD after purchase is completed.
- If a beneficiary/client has a credit card and the individual initiates payment on the credit card, payment from the beneficiary/client funds can be made directly to the credit card company, upon receipt of appropriate documentation.
- If the beneficiary/client has a CFPD-issued Truelink card, funds may be loaded onto the card for payment of the rental vehicle.
- Payment is made directly to the rental company by CHECK, if such is accepted by the rental car company. Beneficiary or someone else may need to additionally put a credit card on file with the company.

Payment via a CFPD credit card for a rental vehicle is expressly prohibited.
